If the military bill should be sustained by public opinion in the North, the South will be less a subject of pity than the nation of lamentation. For, mournful as is the spectacle of a free, high-spirited, and vanquished people, subjected to the rule of the bayonet, it is not to be compared in terrible tragedy with that of a nation, with memories, to their fundamental principles, and their life-long training, as to be willing to curse any portion of their countrymen with the horrors of military domination. When men love freedom so little as to be willing to enforce tyranny on their fellows; when their recollection of the glorious deeds of their ancestors fighting against a stamp act and a tea-tax is so feeble that they are ready to rear the sword of power above the rules of justice; when their habitual devotion to self government is so slight that they consent to become the instruments of wrestling from their own countrymen the right to elect their own rulers and frame their own goverments,—they have begun the inevitable march that will convert them from the instruments of tyranny into the slaves of a despot.—He who will consent to enslave a freeman is fast preparing to become himself a slave.—National Intelligencer.

The New York Herald says:

This new bill of reconstruction continues the State establishments set up by Mr. Johnson as provisional governments subject to the will of Congress, and leaves it to the people of each State concerned, whether they shall proceed at once to reorganize on the terms laid down, or wait a little longer under the supervision of martial law. We presume that the present Southern Governors and their legislatures, under this discretionary power, will prefer to hold on yet awhile until they can take their soundings and make their arrangements concerning the negro vote; so that we may hear of no Southern movement under this bill for the election of a reorganizing State Convention until after the crops of the coming summer shall have been secured. Meantime, from the re-establishment of martial law and the submission of the Southern people to their "manifest destiny," we may expect Northern enterprise and capital to be invited to the development of Southern resources in the way of cotton, corn, rice, sugar and tobacco, and on such terms as will give a great impulse to Southern industry, and profitable harvests to all concerned.

A LOYAL VOTER.—A darkey was informed the other day, that it was very likely he would have to aid in reconstructing the State, by voting for members of a Convention, &c. Cato said he hadn't any larning, and he didn't exactly understand about this matter—"ef dey wanted him to do any fightin, he want gwine to do it—and he didn't know nuffin, no how, bout dis struction de folks talk about." But, he was asked, if he knew how many months there were in the year. "Oh yes; dare is—dare is, just 'bout fourteen!" Well Cato, can you call them? "Oh yes, massa. Dares Jusember, and dares—dares—well I can't just think uv 'em, but I know dares one d—m windy month."

We shall vote to send this nigger to the next Congress.—Goldsboro' News.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,09 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.

FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.

SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.

THIRD.—The only immediate provision is that provided by Life Insurance.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have; goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods for cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the to the contrary is an untruth. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

An Adjourned Legislature.

We have been silent upon the action of the Legislature in fixing the 4th. of March as the day of adjournment, and adjourning over to the third Monday in August, for the reason, that we have no disposition to attempt to influence the action of the Legislature, in any matter which ought to be left entirely to its own direction, in advance of an expression of popular opinion. Every day now is developing new phases in public affairs, and to our mind these indications are plain, that in a short period that body must be called together again, in reference to the momentous affairs of national concern.

Our mind is now clear, that that body should either remain in session ten or fifteen days longer, or take a recess for thirty days, or rescind the order for the adjourned session to meet the third Monday in August, leaving its re assembling to the decision of the Governor and Council. There is a strong reason why the members should return home a short time to consult their constituency upon our Federal relations, though we are inclined to believe, that in the next ten days public sentiment will be sufficiently developed for the Legislature to act advisedly.

North Carolina moves slowly. She acts upon her own convictions of duty, without reference to the action of others, yet she should not be wholly indifferent to the action of others and cannot be. Time for reflection and consultation upon the present status of public affairs, is important, yet when the public mind is convinced how to act and that it must act, it cannot be done too promptly.

Virginia is evidently pondering her action deeply. Nearly a sufficient number of the members of the Legislature have already signed a petition to the Governor, to call the Legislature to meet at once, after the day fixed for adjournment, which, as in our case, is the 4th of March. If a convention, for the amendment of the Constitution, is to be called in North Carolina, and this we regard is a foregone conclusion, we have settled it in our own mind, that it is safest and best for the preservation of order and quiet, that it be called in the regular and constitutional way, and not in any irregular, unauthorized and revolutionary form, which might possibly be acceptable to the ruling powers.

President's Veto.

Up to-day, the public expectation of the Presidential veto on the Sherman bill, has not been gratified, and the telegraph and the press are alike silent as to the cause. It is possible he will send it in to-morrow. Should he determine to pocket the bill and thus assume the responsibility of its defeat during the present Congress judging by the lights we now have, we should deeply regret it. It is a fair presumption, that the views of Mr. Johnson will prevent his giving it his signature. But it is equally clear, that he ought to give to the world and to Congress his reasons for his refusal, in sufficient time to allow that body to act upon his veto, thus throwing the entire responsibility of its passage or defeat upon that body. Should the bill become a law by a two-thirds vote over his veto, we consider whatever may be the strength of his objections to it, he should administer it fairly and promptly, until it is declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.

It is perfectly manifest that the power of the government is in the hands of the Congress.—The North feels it as well as the South. The President as well as the Supreme Court are in the power of that body, and hence we conclude, that all resistance to the power of the Congress is at an end, and that all available defense of a Constitutional Republic in this country, is futile.

Call of Convention.

Mr. Holderby, of Rockingham, it will be seen, introduced a bill to-day, calling a State Convention, which being referred to the committee on Federal relations, indicates such a movement as pressing events seem to demand at no distant day. The bill also proposes to rescind the order to meet the third Monday in August.

Election of Speaker of the Senate.

On the seventh ballot it will be seen, the Senate elected to-day, J. H. Wilson, Esq., of Mecklenburg, Speaker, to fill the vacancy made by Judge Manly's resignation. Messrs. Hall, Leach and others received flattering votes, any of whom would have filled the position well.—Mr. Wilson will make an excellent Speaker.

VIRGINIA.—The tone of the Richmond press indicates that the Legislature of that State, will call a State Convention to amend the Constitution, before the Legislature leaves that city. The Enquirer advises consultation first with the people. The Petersburg Index gives up the matter as almost a settled point, yet enters its protest.

DIRECT TRADE.—It affords us pleasure to call the attention of shippers to the notice in our advertising columns to the effect that we are about to have the experiment of direct trade with Europe tested. The British brig "Kate Upham," is the first of a regular line of packets intended to be run between this port and Liverpool, and has, therefore, we think, a claim to the liberal patronage of those willing to encourage the enterprise. Messrs. DeRosset & Co. are the agents of the line.—Wilmington Journal.

The New York Times' correspondent says ex-Gov. Jack Hamilton, of Texas, has announced himself as a candidate for the Postmaster of the House of Representatives in the Fortieth Congress.

ON CALENDAR.

A bill to amend the charter of the road from Statesville to Wilkesboro; a bill to incorporate the N. C. Land and Immigration aid Company; a bill to grant amnesty to females, and a bill to secure advances for agricultural purposes, passed second and third readings.

An engrossed bill to appoint commissioners to improve the road from John Allen's to the top of the Blue Ridge, in Surry County, and an engrossed resolution in favor of the joint select committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the N. C. Railroad, passed their several readings.

(This last named resolution allows members of said Committee the per diem now allowed to members of the General Assembly.)

A bill for the relief of debtors who have executed deeds of trust was laid on the table on 2nd reading.

Mr. Durham introduced a resolution appropriating ten thousand dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Governor in re-interring soldiers of the Confederate States who fell in the war, designating and decorating their graves, etc. Referred to the committee on Finance.

The House then adjourned.

CORRECTION.

(Messrs. Autry, Collins, May, Turnbull, and Williams, of Martin, were erroneously reported on yesterday as voting against laying on the table the resolution endorsing the action of Congress in relation to the Southern States, introduced by Mr. Scoggin. These gentlemen voted in the affirmative and the motion to lay on the table was made, as stated, by Mr. May.)

The special order being the bill to convert the debt due the State by the Atlantic and N. C. R. R. into capital stock it was taken up, and the yeas and nays being called, resulted in yeas 22 nays 16.

Mr. Berry offered a joint resolution that the committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the North Carolina Railroad be continued, and that they report to the adjourned session in August. Adopted.

Mr. Thornton offered the following resolution, Mr. Clark in the Chair, which was adopted:

Resolved, Unanimously, that the thanks of the Senate are tendered to the Hon. M. E. Manly, for his attention to the business of the Senate, and his able and impartial discharge of the duties of the Chair.

Mr. McRae moved that the rules be suspended to take up a bill to sentence convicts to work on the public roads. It was taken up, and pending its discussion, the Speaker delivered his address, as follows, and vacated the Chair:

Associates, Senators:—The time has arrived when I shall take my leave of the Senate.—While I thank you for the kind compliments of your resolution, candor constrains me to say, the compliments have not been entirely merited,—perhaps not at all, except so far as merit may be found in a sincere desire on my part, under all circumstances and at all times, to act justly and respectfully to each and every member of the body.

Upon assuming the duties of this position, in the beginning of the first session, I expressed a confidence in your courtesy and kindness to overlook my deficiences and to sustain me in the performance of duties. In this I have not been disappointed. There has not been in either session, so far as I know, the slighest disturbance of the good feeling and friendly regard with which we set out. On the contrary, I have had abundant occasions daily to realize and to feel, how greatly I have been indebted to your friendly forbearance. The sessions of this body have been characterized by harmony and good will, and by an earnest desire to respond to the great requirement of our constituents, the alleviation of their distressed condition in some just and efficient way. I trust the short remainder of your time here, may be spent without the occurrence of anything to mar this agreeable view of the past, and that Senators will return in safety to their homes and families and find peace and happiness there.

As for myself, I take leave of the Senate with regret; and in parting, beg leave to tender to Senators individually, a hearty good will, which has been constantly heightened since my association with them, and to give assurances of my interest in all which will abide with me through life, however widely asunder our destinies may be cast. I trust we shall meet again, under happier circumstances. And to the chief Clerk and other officers of the Senate, I give my thanks for their ready and efficient co-operation and aid, and tender assurances of kind remembrances in the future.

We part at a time of great political gloom. Our skies are murky and unsatisfactory. The Congress of the United States has passed an act which seems to degrade us from the position we have occupied as a people since the 20th of May 1776, and which the valor of our ancestors then achieved for us. Nothing can be found in the present posture of affairs to justify such a measure. And I desire now in this presence, and as perhaps the last political act of my life, to deny the truth of the facts recited in the bill of the national Congress as a justification of the measure, and to make solemn protest against its enactment.

In view of the further acts of our State through its representative Assemblies for the past two years, there seems to be no admissible resource left us,—nothing to cheer but the divine gift of hope, that accompanies and consoles us in our greatest adversities. This has not yet taken its farewell of us. I trust we may still look for relief, through a return of the nation to the good common sense and to the sentiment of justice and love of fair dealing, which characterize the ruling elements of civilized society everywhere.

Whatever may be the fate of the humble individual who addresses you (which is a matter of little importance) we trust the madness of the day will not drive on to an abandonment of popular rights totally and forever.

Senators, let us upon our part, be patient under the annoyance of deferred hopes; continue faithful to the principles of our ancestors, and in all we may think proper to do, be prudent, conciliatory and practical. The Lord will watch between us and those who desire to do us wrong and order events rightly.

Senators, I bid you farewell.

The Senate at once proceeded to the election of a Speaker. Mess. Wilson, Leach, Speed and Hall were put in nomination. First ballot, Leach 10, Wilson 9, Hall 8, Speed 6, Jones 3, Wiggins 3. Mr. Speed withdrew his name after the first ballot. Second ballot, Leach 14, Hall 12, Wilson 9, Wiggins 3, Jones 3. Third ballot, Leach 14, Hall 12, Wilson 9, Jones 1, Bullock 1, Wiggins 1. Fourth ballot, Leach 14, Hall, 13, Wilson 9, Jones 9, Wiggins 3.—The names of Mess. Leach and Wilson were withdrawn at their request. Mess. Robins and Cowles were then nominated. Fifth ballot, Hall 18, Robins 6, Cowles 7, Jones 2, Wilson 1, scattering 7. Sixth ballot, Hall 19, Robins 9, Cowles 7, Jones 1, Love 1, Wilson 1, scattering 7. Mess. Robins and Cowles were withdrawn at their request and Mr. Wilson was renominated by Mr. Jones. Seventh ballot, Wilson 22, Hall 16, Wiggins 2. Mr. Wilson was declared elected, and, being conducted to the Chair, made the following remarks:

Senators:—I feel highly honored that you have seen fit to devolve upon me the mantle of the Speaker's chair, which has been vacated by the distinguished Senator from Craven. For this mark of your confidence, and the honor thus conferred, I thank you.

I accept the position, leaning upon your kind forbearance, and invoking your kind aid and co-operation in the discharge of its duties, its trusts and its responsibilities.

The special order, being Mr. Loves' resolution proposing a National Convention, was called up. Mr. Love addressed the Senate at length in its support. Mr. Leach replied, and Mr. Love rejoined, and

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, March 1.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Mr. Moore, of Chatham, asked leave to record his name in favor of the resolution, (rejected at the first session,) proposing to adopt the Howard amendment.

Mr. Peebles objected, stating that the gentlemen had been in attendance on the meetings of this Assembly nearly two months, and could not therefore plead the want of an opportunity as an excuse for not recording his vote in favor of the Howard amendment. If he was really in favor of the amendment, and was absent when it was considered, he ought to have placed himself on the record immediately on his return.—That the present condition of our National affairs rendered it more than probable that the champions of the amendment would be rewarded, and it was, therefore, in his opinion, an indelicate time for members of this General Assembly to record their votes in favor of said amendment.

Objection being made, leave was refused.

Mr. Holderby introduced a bill submitting the question of "Penitentiary" or "no Penitentiary" to the people. Passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules.

ON CALENDAR.

A bill to incorporate the Charlotte and Georgetown Railroad Company, passed second reading and, on motion of Mr. Bryson, was recommitted.

A bill for the protection of grape-growers, was put on its second reading.

A substitute for the bill, (reported from the Judiciary Committee,) under the title of "a bill to protect fruits and vegetables," was adopted, and after a protracted discussion, the bill passed its second and third reading.

Messrs. Durham, Bryson, Jenkins, of Gaston, Blythe, Waugh, Garrett, Vestal and Morton entered a protest against the passage of this bill.

The special order, viz: a bill to amend the charter of the North Carolina Railroad Company, was postponed until next session.

The following bills were introduced, by leave, viz:

By Mr. Autry, a bill to incorporate Clinton Saving's Bank, in the county of Sampson. Filed.

By Mr. Richardson, a bill to empower the Secretary of State and the Public Treasurer to administer oaths in matters pertaining to the Revenue. Passed, under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Latham, of Craven, a bill to incorporate the Neuse and Trent River Ferry Company.—Passed, under a suspension of the rules.

A resolution was received from the Senate, proposing to continue the committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the North Carolina Railroad, accompanied by a message refusing concurrence in the House resolution, proposing to enlarge, as well as continue said committee.

The Senate resolution was adopted.

An engrossed bill to incorporate the Key Stone Publishing Company, Raleigh, N. C., passed its several readings.

An engrossed bill authorizing the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Wake county to reform their financial system, and an engrossed bill to amend the stay law, had their first reading.

An engrossed bill in favor of the legal representatives of W. E. Mann, late Sheriff of Pasquotank county, passed its several readings.

Mr. Holderby, by leave, introduced a bill to call a State Convention. Referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

CALENDAR RESUMED.

A bill to incorporate the Cumberland Savings Bank. A bill for the assignment of certain rooms in the Capitol. A bill supplemental to an act to incorporate the Northwestern Railroad Company. A bill in relation to Burke Square and other public property in the city of Raleigh, and a bill to amend section 14, chapter 26 of the Revised Code, passed their second and third readings.

A bill for the relief of Sheriffs and Tax Collectors. A resolution to re port and republish Winston's reports, and a resolution empowering the Treasurer to transfer stock owned by the State, in the liquidation of its bonds, were laid on the table.

A bill to consolidate the Chatham and Western Railroad Companies under the name of the Fayetteville & Coalfields Railroad, was amended on motion of Mr. McKay, by changing the title to the Fayetteville & Yadkin Railroad. The bill was then postponed to next session, on motion of Mr. Morehead.

A bill to amend the charter of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad passed second rending, and the House then took recess until 7 o'clock P. M.

From the New York World.

In what respects the Situation has Changed.

If the Southern people should resist the execution of martial law by force, they would be fighting in as righteous a cause as any in which a patriot ever drew his sword. Armed resistance is the natural and appropriate mode of redress for such flagrant injustice as is now meditated against the South. "Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God." The only good reason for not appealing to arms in this conjuncture is the hopelessness of success. When the Southern States determined on war, six years ago, they were without justification, because the injuries complained of were only in prospect not actually experienced; and because they had other efficient means of checking and foiling the Republican party. The Democratic party had at that time a majority in both Houses of Congress. The whole bench of the Supreme Court was democratic. But at present, unless the South can find redress by arms, no redress is possible. If they had the political machinery which they could have controlled in 1861, a resort to force would be unjustifiable, even under such outrages on their rights as are now ripe for execution. But their political efficiency and their military resources are at an equally low ebb, at a time when they have the sorest need of both.

We suppose that such Southerners as can sufficiently control their honest indignation to make an estimate of the situation, will perceive that the only choice which remains open to them lies between a dogged, sullen submission, and reorganization under the new gospel of negro suffrage. In such a pitiable choice of alternatives, we do not offer advice; but we can perhaps explain the actual situation more dispassionately than those who are stung into justifiable rage by this fresh aggression.

We advised and approved of the rejection by the South of the Constitutional Amendment.—If we hesitate, as yet, to give similar advice respecting the reorganization proposed in Sherman's bill, it is because circumstances have, in essential respects, so totally changed, that a new and comprehensive survey of the situation is a necessary pre-requisite to intelligent action.—The two chief features of Sherman's bill are outrages which baffled political foresight, because it was not supposed or supposable that such a stretch of perfidy and inconsistency could be ventured upon. Sherman's bill provides for the overthrow of the Southern State governments, and for putting the whole section under the rigors of martial law. We had what seemed to be solid reasons for supposing that neither of these outrages would be perpetrated. In relation to the State governments, we supposed that the Republican party would be bound by its own recognition of those governments. The importance which they attached to the Emancipation Amendment, and the fact that they recognized the Southern ratifications of it as valid, precluded them, in logic and consistency, from afterwards calling in question the competency of the ratifying State governments. Congress has acknowledged the validity of the Southern ratifications of that amendment, in a dozen different ways. It has repeatedly made it the basis of legislation, and even in proposing the amendment now pending, it recognized its validity by numbering the proposed amendment as the fourteenth, which it could not be unless there was a thirteenth, and the thirteenth is precisely the Emancipation Amendment. It seemed against all antecedent probability that a Republican Congress would displace this amendment from the Constitution, by declaring that the ratifying States which made up the three-fourths, were not competent to act upon it.—Even the pending amendment was submitted to the Southern States and their ratifications asked. Was it to be expected that Congress would so stultify itself as to declare illegal the very governments it had thus recognized?

Putting the South under martial law was as little to have been expected as any reasonable calculation. Martial law, by its very nature and definition, is a suspension of the habeas corpus; and the Constitution declares, with as much emphasis as it says anything, that the habeas corpus shall not be suspended except in times of rebellion or invasion. There being no rebellion, it was not to have been expected that the South would be again put under martial law.

If these two outrageous and unexpected measures had not been resorted to, the South would stand on strong vantage ground for baffling the Radicals. The worst that could be done was to exclude the Southern members of Congress; an evil that might be borne with composure so long as the South held control of its internal affairs, through State governments freely chosen by its white citizens. The extent of the evil was the payment of Federal taxes without Federal representation. But with the State governments abolished, or existing on mere sufferance, and the whole people subject to martial law, the situation is so changed, and the consequences of resistance so stupendously magnified, that it is important to take new observations and bearings before deciding on the future direction of the voyage.

We suppose it will be found, when the South can abate its just indignation sufficiently for a careful survey, that it possesses no machinery or resources, either political or military, for fending off this atrocious oppression. If no such machinery or resources shall be discoverable, the practical question will then be, whether the South shall accept the situation under protest, or disdainfully submit to it. Were it not for the negro element of the problem, the latter would undoubtedly be the true course, as alike consistent with safety and self-respect. But the negro element complicates the question, and renders the solution more difficult. It is possible that the Republicans may, through government patronage and appeals to ambition, bribe and demoralize Southern whites enough to make, with the negroes, a majority of the inhabitants. If they can succeed in this, they will reorganize and admit the States, and the South will thereafter be under negro rule, and will become intolerable as the residence of white men. Admitting (at least by hypothesis) that this danger is not fanciful, the question arises (and a very grave one it is) whether it is not better to "fight the devil with fire," by accepting the negro suffrage which is inevitable, and controlling the negro vote, instead of allowing it to be alienated to the Republicans, as it would pretty certainly be by resistance. Whether the negro vote could be managed by the planters, and whether whites enough could be seduced to make the Radical plan work, are questions that cannot be answered without more local knowledge than we possess; but we suppose all intelligent Southerners must allow that these questions ought to be well considered before taking an irreversible resolution.

Destrutive Fire in Fayetteville.

We are indebted to Messrs. James G. Cook and D. G. McRae for the following particulars of the fire, which occurred in Fayetteville on Wednesday night last.

About 7½ o'clock, P. M., the alarm of fire was given, and it was soon discovered to have occurred in the second story of the grocery store of Mr. B. F. Hollingsworth, in a block of buildings between the Cape Fear Bank and Dick street, most of them large framed wooden buildings. In an hour and a half, so rapidly did the fire spread, the ten or twelve wooden buildings were in flames.

Mr. Cook says, "the Cape Fear Bank a brick building and fire proof, and the premises, were saved from damage by the extraordinary exertions of the Fire Company, commanded by Capt. C. R. Banks. No fire could have been better managed. Mr. McRethan's large carriage factory was preserved, but east of it on Dick street, the large dwelling owned by Dr. Freeman, was saved by the determined stand taken by the citizens, with buckets and blankets. The stand was well taken and well managed, and saved Dick street. The noble work done by quite a number of colored men under my own eye, deserves special mention.—Were I to particularize, I should possibly omit some equally meritorious. Take it altogether no fire of the same magnitude has been managed better. The origin of the fire is unknown. The heaviest losers are Messrs Jos. Hollingsworth, B. F. Hollingsworth, Grocers, and Messrs. Wm. Overby and O. Houston, saddlers and harness-makers. There was no insurance on any of it, and it leaves quite a number very poor." We need not add that we deeply sympathise with the unfortunate ones.

Hon. E. G. Reade, Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of this State, we learn, has appointed R. W. Lassiter, Esq., of Oxford, to deliver the oration on the life and character of the late lamented Grand Secretary, W. T. Bain. The oration will be delivered before the Grand Lodge in December next.

A row occurred in the Nebraska Legislature, on the 17th instant, during which the Speaker was deposed, when he drew a pistol on the Sergeant-at-Arms.

Supreme Court of North Carolina.

This body closed a laborious session on yesterday. Before its adjournment the following rule was adopted by the Court:

RULE.—In any argument before this Court, the counsel will hereafter file a brief containing the different points which he makes, and the names of the cases and authorities upon which he relies in support of each point,

AFFAIRS IN MARYLAND.—The Baltimore American of yesterday afternoon had the following significant dispatch from Annapolis:

Annapolis, February 26.—Notwithstanding that Lieutenant-Governor Cox received notice a week ago from Governor Swann of his intention to resign his position as Governor to day, and all the arrangements had been made for the inauguration of the Lieutenant-Governor in the place of the retiring Senator elect, at half-past ten o'clock this morning Governor Cox received a letter to the following effect:

"Having informed you of my purpose to resign the position which I now hold as Governor of Maryland, on this day, I now state, in order that it may be communicated to the Senate, to whom the announcement has been made, that I do not feel at liberty to take this important step without further time for deliberation.

"I shall communicate with the General Assembly at as early a day as practicable upon this subject.

(Signed) "THOMAS SWANN."

We publish below an analysis made by Dr. D. M. Buie, of 100 grains of Phœnix Guano, for a firm in this city. The 100 grains produced—

Organic matter	6.0
Water	13.
Bone Phosphate of Lime	68.8
Carbonate of Lime	8.66
Ammonia	2.688
	99.148

Dr. Buie informs us that this Guano is well adapted to cotton lands, and is likewise a valuable fertilizer for all kinds of grain and other crops.

Wilmington Journal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Dispatch says that two negro women attempted to commit suicide in that city on Saturday last by taking laudanum. One of the two was so desperately bent on ending her earthly career that she swallowed a number of pins after she had been relieved of the laudanum. A gay Lothario, in the shape of a big darkey, was the cause of all this woe.

THE SOUTH WILL ACCEPT ITS CHAINS.—No denial need be attempted of the fact which four days of threatened trial have developed. The South will accept the slavery extended under Sherman's bill. A thousand straws show how the current is setting. No hazzard is now in the prediction that ere sixty days have passed, a majority of the Southern States will voluntarily have conformed to the new order of things, andwe make it.—Petersburg Index.

Chicago was in a bad way Thursday night, according to the papers. An unnatural mother threw her infant into the river; another heartlessly left her baby on the door-step of a citizen; a worthless fellow deserted his wife—and Wendell Phillips delivered a lecture. Enough of evils for one night.—Tracey.

CASH AND CREDIT.—At a public sale last week in Caswell county, N. C., corn sold for $8.75 per barrel, at six months credit; and at another sale in the same week, it went for $4.75 cash. This will give some idea of the scarcity of money in that region.

It is certain that all the argument, and all the reason, and all the justice, and all the Constitution, are in opposition to the measures of the dominant party in Congress; and yet, by the force of party discipline applied to numbers, these measures are carried and acquiesced in. We begin to perceive the principle of fear exerting some influence at the North. They quail there under the "terror of the Radicals." This is one of the worst signs of the times.—Alexandria Gazette.

The New York Herald states that the Roberts Fenians in that city contemplate an early resumption of operations in Canada.

The colored people of Stanton, Va., are getting up a petition for the removal of the Freedmen's Bureau from the South.

A detail of one hundred and forty five armed men were on duty to preserve the peace at the late Georgetown election.

Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, of Boston, has contributed $300 to the Southern relief fund. In a letter accompanying the donation he says: "I fear that our people are not sufficiently alive to the danger of starvation which is impending over many parts of the South."

The iron bridge across Broadway, N. Y., at the intersection of Fulton street, will be finished in the course of the week.

The Committee on Foreign relations was discharged from the consideration of the bill to take soundings for a cable hence to France, and a remonstrance of certain Canadians against the confederation of the Provinces.

The Postmaster General was requested to report whether contractor A. G. Carter, at Stanton, Va., could take the test oath.

The bill temporarily increasing the compensation of army officers, passed.

The civil appropriation bill was resumed.—On the question of paying unqualified Treasury agents in the South, Mr. Chandler asserted that Dan. Vorhees was McCulloch's secret agent.

Mr. Hendricks interrupted Mr. Chandler, asserting that the statement was untrue.

The amendment was adopted paying Treasury officers up to August, 1866. The bill passed.

In the House, Mr. Reynolds' anti-Canada confederation resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

The India appropriation bill was referred to a Committee of Conference.

The Committee on Foreign Relations will not report on Mexican affairs now.

At half past two, Mr. Murrill said he would make his last effort for the tariff. He moved a suspension of the rules so as to bring the matter before the House. A half dozen efforts was made, failing in every case to obtain the required two-thirds.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEBRAted Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive. Free from Grease. It will not grease the hands. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR RATCHET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

THE BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL

now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is extensively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and we solicit from the public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of

and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

First Premium Awarded at the Louisiana State Fair held in New Orleans, from Nov. 20th, to 27th, 1866, against all Competitors.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

We beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 225 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF

Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.80
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality fall equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on 1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
